The Numbers

No one was released based on medical or geriatric status in 2019 and 2020 because Iowa has no compassionate release provision.

High and Low Marks

HIGH MARKS

- None

LOW MARKS

- Iowa is the only state in the nation with no compassionate release program whatsoever. Not only does the state have no program, the Board of Parole addresses the issue on its information webpage, explaining, "The Board of Parole does not grant parole due to medical reasons or for family hardship cases." The Board will consider medical issues presented when an individual is up for parole consideration in the ordinary course.
